What you need to know:

CFM Redland is an ongoing ministry. A few volunteers come every Saturday and other volunteers come every other Saturday or once a month on Saturday. If you commit to serving on a regular basis, please understand that we count on you and plan accordingly.

What to expect:

When you arrive, please park in the rear of the church building; next to the covered basketball area and look for the classrooms on the west side. Please call Perla Moreno once there.

What to wear:

Please dress comfortably. Jeans, sneakers, and comfortable tops (t-shirts) are appropriate.

When you arrive, you'll be assigned to one of the following areas:

Children's Services – basic tutoring of math/reading comprehension as needed
Childcare – care of infants as needed

English Classes – If bilingual, you may be asked to sit with guest adult students seeking to better their conversational English. You may also be asked to help teach basic concepts during the class time.

Computers – You may be asked to teach basic computer skills like “how to use your mouse,” “how to cut, paste, and turn on your monitor,” or “how to save a word document.” Class subjects vary on student's aptitude.
